COLLEGE OF OSTEOPATHIC MEDICINE

I attest that I have read the Touro University College of Osteopathic Medicine Student Handbook (June 19, 2017 edition) and agree to comply with the provisions listed in it. The Handbook can be found here.

Registration and matriculation at Touro after the issuance of the Student Handbook is consideration for and constitutes a student's knowing acceptance of the binding Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") mechanisms (including binding arbitration) contained herein. Thus, any dispute, claim or controversy arising out of or related to your application, registration, matriculation, graduation or other separation from Touro and/or this Handbook, which is not resolved through Touro's internal mechanism shall be exclusively resolved through final and binding expedited arbitration conducted solely before the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), or any successor in interest, in accordance with the AAA Rules then in effect. The location of the arbitration shall be at a convenient office on a Touro campus where the student is (or was last) affiliated. See "Arbitration of Disputes" provision for a more elaborate treatment.

By typing my name, I, the undersigned, certify that I am signing this document as the person whose signature is required.
